Headed to St. Augustine and Palm Coast, which is why I was hoping to catch up with Bill Leary. Notwithstanding that he is now in northern California, I did find him and had a great talk with him last week. Not surprisingly, it was as if I had talked to him the day before—he is just that kind of guy!

Thanks again for your help in tracking him down.

Have a great (three-day) weekend!

With this cold weather I'm really missing getting out for pasture pool. I'll look forward to a Friday or two soon!

Hope its really warm where you're going!

Perfect. Thanks.

P.s. I am headed south on Saturday for a few days, so if you don't hear back from me right away, it doesn't mean that I don't care! It means that I am enjoying an outdoor activity.

P.p.s. I hope that we can schedule an outdoor activity up here as soon as it gets warm enough. I like to play on Fridays, so try to keep a Friday open for me this spring.

Hey Alan. We'll get this on the calendar and I'll be back to you shortly.

Have a great weekend.

Best,

Greg

Greg,

Thanks again for your understanding when the Hudbay folks had to postpone their visit to D.C. earlier this month, though it sounds like it worked out for the best given the other demands on Joel's schedule.

The folks from Hudbay have now rescheduled their visit to D.C. for Monday, March 14, and Tuesday, March 15, to update people on the current status of the permitting of the Rosemont mine project in southern Arizona. Can we try to get something on the schedule for one of those two days? Best for us would be if the meeting with Joel could be on Monday, March 14, but if not the 15th should work as well.

Please let me know what may work best for Joel and you. I look forward to seeing both of you next month.

Thanks, as always, for your time and consideration in this matter. Much appreciated.

Thanks Alan - as always your help is greatly appreciated. I'll plan to call you later this week after the hearing and we can discuss options.

Best,

Greg

Thanks, Greg, for the quick response. Sorry for the late notice on the change in the schedule for the Hudbay folks. But, given that Joel has to testify that day, I guess this has worked out for the best.

We are working with the Hudbay folks to determine when they might be able to schedule a trip to D.C. I will let you know as soon as I hear that they are planning to head in this direction.

In the meantime, I am always available to meet with you and Joel to provide any updates that you may need from my perspective on the Rosemont project. Please let me know if and when it might be helpful for me to come over to talk with you further about this matter.

Thanks.

Hi Alan. Thanks for your message. Since scheduling our meeting for the 3rd, Joel has been invited to testify before Congress on the same day. Do you expect Hudbay folks will reschedule a trip to DC? Would be glad to work with you to get time on Joel's calendar to meet with their President or, if he's not likely to be in DC in the next month or so, to schedule time with you.

I'll call you later this week and we can talk about options for a meeting that works for you all.

Best,

Greg

I just received this revised outlook calendar notice regarding the meeting that we had scheduled for the President of Hudbay with Joel Beauvais next Wednesday, February 3, at 1 p.m. As I noted in a voice mail message to Greg Peck this morning, unfortunately the President of Hudbay now has a conflict in his schedule next week and will not be coming to D.C. and therefore will not be able to meet with Mr. Beauvais.

The revised notice suggests a "HOLD" on the meeting, but I am not sure what that means. If Mr. Beauvais would still like to see me next week, I would be happy to come to your office on Wednesday at 1 p.m. If not, then I will be back in touch with you to schedule a meeting once it is determined when the President of Hudbay will be back in D.C.

I await your further instructions. Thanks.
